372 Albert Street is a prominent 9-storey building situated within an outstanding city fringe location directly opposite the serene Fitzroy Gardens.

The building provides lift access and is suitable for a number of uses, including corporate offices or medical consulting rooms.

The property is located on the north-east corner of Albert & Lansdowne Streets within a major hospital precinct (incorporating The Freemasons, St Vincent's and Mercy Private Hospitals) and is within immediate proximity to public transport facilities, including tram services along Victoria Parade, Brunswick Street and Smith Street, Fitzroy.

Importantly, the entrance to Parliament train station is approximately 500 metres away.
